

Friday 29 May 2015

THE INCARNATION OF THE IDEA OF SOCIAL SECURITY IN THE DIVERSITY OF SYSTEMS

Workshop n°1. Conditions of access to social protection - Moderator: M. Badel/M. Ribeyrol-Subrenat

- Khalid Boukaich, University of Tangiers, Morocco: Moroccan social legislation and compensation for employees deprived involuntarily of work
- Isabelle Desbarats, University of Toulouse: What social protection for mobile workers? The case of workers on secondment
- Nadia Kesteman, research department: Access to rights in the family branch of social security: contributions and limits of ICT and targeting recipients
- Claire Magord, CERCRID, Jean Monnet Saint Etienne University: The contentious routes of access to the social rights. A comparison between the social assistance and the Social Security
- Kamila Makara, University of Gdansk, IUE Florence: Access to health care across borders. Tensions and challenges
- Antoine Math, University of Nancy, IRES researcher: Increased insecurity of residency for foreigners and the condition of lawful residence for access to social rights
- Nadia Okbari, IEP Bordeaux: Access to law in social security bodies: the example of non-recourse to the R.S.A for poor workers

Workshop n°2. Modes of Financing Social Security - Moderators: F. Petit/Ph. Salièges

- Géraldine Bloy, University of Burgundy: From regulating expenditure to regulating healthcare?
- Bernard Capdeville, CESE, Social welfare: ensuring the future of health insurance, Expert opinion, CESE
- Maria Teresa Medeiros Garcia, University of Lisbon: A change in the design of the Portuguese social security system
- Luc Pierron, MGEN: Is the euro the only horizon? The grip of European economic governance on the reform process in member states: the example of social security
- François Taquet: Gesica network, Financing social security and respect for the rights of contributors
- Angelos Stergiou, University of Thessalonica: Social security law and public debt
- Isabelle Vacarie, University of Nanterre: The principle of solidarity and the European Stability Pact
- Jingyue Xing, ENS – M. Halbawachs Centre: Impact of treatment financing modes on the health of residents in homes for dependent seniors

Workshop n°3. The Market and the Individual - Moderator : J. - M. Gasteix/Ph. Martin

- Jacques Barthélémy, Associated Lawyers: Supplementary social protection
- Jean-Pierre Chauchard, University of Nantes: Ambiguities in supplementary health insurance
- Otto Kaufmann, Max Planck Institute: Company pension schemes in Germany
- Philippe Langlois, Cabinet Flichy: Risk sharing and solidarity
- Jean-Michel Laxalt, Institut Montparnasse: Between market and individual, the impossible solidarity synthesis? The quartered mutual insurance?
- Zhang Ruihong, Kunming Medical University and Tsai Duujian, Taipei Medical University Taiwan: Private/ Professional health insurance and individuals needs

Social Security: a 70-year-old new idea Contributions to workshops

Thursday 28 May 2015

THE UNIVERSALITY OF THE IDEA OF SOCIAL SECURITY

Workshop n°1. The History of Social Security Law - Moderators: L. Guerlain/Ch. Demilly

- Gian Guido Balandi, University of Ferrara: Evolution and contradictions in the Italian social security system. The model based on art. 38 of the constitution: a "corporatist Bismarck"
- Marie-Claude Blais, University of Rouen: From solidarity to social security, the question of the social bond under the 3rd republic
- Elodie Coutant – CAHD – University of Bordeaux: Social insurance in Alsace and Lorraine, a model for the birth of French law on the subject
- Bernard Gallinato, University of Bordeaux: The General Council of the Gironde and social insurance in the period between the wars
- Otto Kaufmann, Max Planck Institute: On the historical evolution of social insurance in Germany
- Jean-Pierre Le Crom, University of Nantes: When social protection is detached from labour law (1930s-1950s): issues, modalities and consequences
- Bruno Valat, University of Toulouse: Was the French Resistance behind the French social security plan (1945)?
- Nick Wikeley, University of Southampton: The history of Social security law : the British system

Workshop n°2. The Founding Principles Today and Tomorrow - Moderators : O. Pujolar/R. Tailleur

- Arnaud Arfeuille, RSI Aquitaine: Long live the tax burden!
- Valérie Avérous Verclytte, Montaigne University: Between planning and contractualization. Social security, "a crossroads of players and ideas"
- Valentina Cagnin, University of Venice: Does globalization change the principles governing labour law?
- Krzysztof Hagemeyer, Social Policy Bureau, Chancellery of the President of Poland, formerly ILO: Origins, intentions and challenges to implementation of the ILO Social Protection Floor Recommendation n° 202
- Lola Isidro, University of Paris Nanterre: The universality of social security and the condition of foreign workers
- Nicole Kerschen, University of Paris X Nanterre: Universalism, personal rights and social citizenship
- Baya Ibn Khaldoun, University of Rabat, Morocco: The generalisation of social protection in Morocco
- Han Yuehong, Kunming University of Technology: Human dignity, Universality, equality and solidarity and the expansion of social security Rights
- Xiaomei Zhai, School of the Humanities and Social Sciences, Peking Union Medical College : Ethical and policy issues in long-term care insurance in mainland China

Workshop n°3. Diversity of Models in Space - Moderator: J. Porta/F. Hiebel

- Gaël Coron, EHESP: The pillarization of social protection, a forced import
- Michel Doucin, former CESE ambassador: Implementing the bases of universal social protection in sub-Saharan Africa: progress and difficulties
- Augustin Emame, University of Nantes: Social Security in Africa: from "social insurance" to universal coverage
- Abdessattar Mouelhi, University of Carthage, INTES: Tunisian social security law: the present revolution haunted by the past
- Mahammed Nasr-Eddine Koriche, University of Algiers: The main characteristics of the Algerian model of social security
- Supriya Routh, University of Laval: Labor Rights Or Human Development: The Challenge of Social Protection for Informal Workers in India
- Wafa Tamzini, University of Paris 13 Sorbonne: The influence of the universality of French social security in the elaboration of Arabic models: a comparative approach to France and the Maghreb